"TAG DAY."

A fit celebration of Washington's birthday is to have our "Tsg Day" the Twenty-second of February as every one knows that the money collected by this means is to be used for the avrang ing of a public play ground for the children, therefore a splendid commemora-tion of Washington's birth would be to benefit his smail countrymen who are to grow up and help direct the government of which he was the father-patriot.

A committee of twenty gentlemen are to call at the public echools on Friday and arrange to have the children dispose of the individual tage—so look out for the youngsters and see that they don't established themselves in the hearts of leave you out. The minimum price of the people and are catering more for the personal tags is ten cants.

Miss Mary Carlin is the able chairman of the wagon and store tags. The minimum price for wagon tags is twentyfive cents and the minimum price for the store tags is one dol'ar. So to the front, all ye merchants, and help in the good all ye merchants, and help in the good cause. Only and, too, are given the chance to aid and all who will, for aside ral as life and the fire laddles were strugfrom the enjoyment it will foraish the youngsters, it will also help to heantify struction. The scene was the most real-the city, in which we all have pride; so istic ever presented and was a credit to in helping the urchins, one helps ones self. Baprerared, then, for Tag Day, Monday, the Twenty-second of February.

ESCAPE OF PRISONER.

this city on the 29th instant for the lar- sil. ceny of a horse in Henrico county, and a large quantity of meat, several sets of harness and other goods from farmers in Fairfax county, escaped from Deputy Sheriff R. C. Garnett, of Henrico county, yesterday afternoon, by leaping from a rapidly moving Washington Southern old. He leaves a widow and three childtrain at Franconia, about 7 miles south of Alexandria. Lieutenant Smith was notified of the man's escape by telephone from Richmond, about five hours after by occupation. the occurrence, and at once communicated with all of the neighbring towns.

Johnson had been held for the Henrico confined, delayed his departure until the ter of Edward and Anna Day. She was quarantine was lifted.

Shorily after Deputy Sheriff Gurnett left Alexandria with Johnson, yesterday afteraoon, the prisoner made an excuse to have the bandouffs removed from his wrists, and immediately made a dash for the platiform of the car, from which he icaped while the train was traveling at songs; he is a first class basso singer and 30 miles an hour. Johnson is about 28 if you fail to hear him you are missing years old, and had been feigning incary since his arrest.

A white man, charged with fighting, was fined $5. Another man, charged with a similar offense, was dismissed.

ENTERTAINMENT AT LYCEUM TONIGHT.

Those who do not a tend the musical and literary entertainment at the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum Hall tonight will miss the time of their lives. Messrs. O'Shea and Trodder, popular and well-known singers of Washington, will be at the Lyceum this evening, and all should hear them. Well-known local talent will also take part in the entertainment, and all the lovers of music should embrace this opportunity. FERRY BOAT ON MARCH 4. As has been stated in the Gazette, the Washington and Potomac Steamboat Company will place a steamer on the route between Alexandria and Washing-ington on the fourth of March. The merchants of this city and other are s'ill engrg ed in formulating plans by which a permanent ferry service can be re-established between the two cities. No boat has been run on the line since the 8d day of last November.

A GOOD SINGER,

is enjoyed by most every one. Such wa the case at the Elite Company last night. Every one who heard Mr. J Wilber Davis was more than pleased with his a treat. Tonight there will be an entire change of pictures. These pictures will interest you. Mr. Davis will sing tonight and when you see the pictures and bear him you will go away satisfied that you get the best entertainment on earth for the money. Remember the Elite Company is the only 5 cent theatre in the city.

THE PETTEY SIGNAL.

The apparatus for the purpose of signaling trolley cars and announcing that a fire slarm has been sounded and that fire companies are on their way, has been established at Strte and Platt streets. When No. 3 gets an alarm and the apparatus leaves the house the wheels of the cart touch a spring whichelectrically sets off the danger signal in State street and trolley traffic in that street is held up until the fire company is given time to pass. So far as it has been tested the device works well.— Rochester, N. Y., Democrat and
